

HUGHES' ADDRESS ELICITS COMMENT FROM EUROPEANS

Well Timed to Fall on Ears of Premiers' Meeting,
Englishmen Believe

J. P. MORGAN BLAMED

Believed to Be Interested in Plan for Commission to Settle Differences

FRENCHMEN NOT RECEPTIVE

They Regard Hughes' Speech and American Plan With Coolness; One Paper Bitter

LONDON, Dec. 30.—On the speech of Secretary of State Hughes, which was broadcast to Europe, the English press has been very critical, and suggesting a remedy was seriously considered. In some of the most important circles of the English press, it is believed that the speech was a masterpiece of diplomacy, and that it was well timed to fall on the ears of the premiers' meeting.

A policy of absolute silence was adopted by the foreign office here today. It is believed in some quarters that J. P. Morgan was largely responsible for the suggestion that a great international tribunal be established to settle the differences between the United States and Germany. The plan would be to have a commission of five members, three from the United States and two from Germany, to settle the differences between the two countries. The plan has already been suggested to the American government, and it is believed that it will be adopted.

Character of the Executive Stanley Baldwin, head of the British government, which is on its way to Washington to negotiate for the funding of the British debt, was stated with wide powers and it is believed he will discuss the American plan while at Washington.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—Secretary Hughes' speech on German reparations is viewed by the semi-official organ Temps as a result of "election considerations."

Commenting upon the speech, the paper bitterly declared that Germany is not paying, France must nevertheless pay America.

Some of the French remarks, said the paper, "show that with his journalist's conscience cannot condemn them. Why then did he propose it? Doubtless because election considerations lead him to it."

Secretary Hughes' assertions in regard to the failure of the European statesmen thus far to agree on reparations provoked great interest in official circles here, although the speech was not conveyed to the French government in an official way, the suggestions it contained were taken to be directed at France.

The French position is that it is not the failure of the allies to reach an accord on the subject that is causing the present difficulties but rather Germany's policy of evasion and opposition to all the allied demands.

I was true, officials admitted, that certain views of President Harding and Secretary Hughes had been conveyed to France through the French embassy in Washington.

It also was confirmed that the French officials have been made aware of the apparent intention of Chancellor Cuno of Germany, to propose a four-power pact to be signed by Great Britain, Italy, France and Germany for the purpose of guaranteeing the security of France and the present Franco-German frontiers.

Chancellor Cuno's new scheme is expected to be presented next Tuesday or Wednesday.

SANFORD NAMES HIS DEPUTY CREW

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
he proud of. I want to give every citizen a square deal and everyone coming to the sheriff's office on official business will be treated with all respect and courtesy.

"There have been many reports of lawlessness in the county. All of these reports will be fully investigated and such lawlessness stopped if any is found. I will take some time to get everything fully organized but within a few weeks I hope to have things in such shape that my men will be available at a moment's call to the aid of the county."

I have consulted the incoming county attorney and the police officials and I think that we will cooperate to stop the lawlessness. If present plans work out the citizens of this county will enjoy real service from my office during the next two years.

Office deputies were named yesterday by James T. Whiteley, county assessor-elect, who also takes office Monday. They are: D. A. Rowe, chief deputy; Mrs. Minnie Markham, J. H. Parker, S. A. Hobbs, Dale Reynolds, Little Lorne Harn. Parker is from Broken Arrow. The others live in Tulsa. Mrs. Markham is the only holdover from F. P. Bowling's administration. Outside deputies who work only while assessments are being made will be named later, Whiteley said. The new assessor declared that his policy would be to see that as many people paid all their taxes as possible to the end that all would be required to pay as little as possible.

O. G. Weaver, the new county clerk, announced that M. Brady and Brady Brown would be his chief deputies. He did not make public his 15 other appointments.

YOU'VE READ A LOT ABOUT
"NIGHT LIFE IN HOLLYWOOD"
BUT WHAT DO YOU REALLY KNOW?

Will Be Freed From Prison, But All Will Be Deported With Warning Not to Return

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—High members of the I. W. O. convicted for violations of the national espionage laws and now serving varying sentences in federal prisons, were extended executive clemency today by President Harding on the eve of the new year.

Those receiving clemency are the so-called "political prisoners" in whose behalf an extended campaign has been conducted for the last three years.

"Big Bill" Haywood, the most widely known of the group, was released from the Alcatraz prison, where he had been confined since 1919.

The men were pardoned outright by President Harding. All three were released from the Alcatraz prison, where they had been confined since 1919.

Attorney General Daugherty, announcing the pardons, said that the prisoners are subject to deportation. The president commuted the sentence of each one to the term already served, upon condition that they be deported and never return to the United States. Mr. Daugherty said.

Must Stay Away.
The president inquired the further

CHICAGO REPORTERS SPEND HECTIC DAY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
guard was discovered it had misplaced. Mr. Krenn's agent, who had been following him, was found stepping into his coupe. Motor mounted correspondents trailed the elusive Sixes into the Loop.

For two photograph records, walked about a bit and admired the store windows, then returned to his hotel, where an irate traffic policeman was waiting with a slip directing Mr. Krenn to appear in court Tuesday and explain a violation of the traffic laws.

Near the chase led to the radio shop. A short wait and the coveys, Mr. Krenn's coupe and a half dozen taxicabs, returned to the hotel, where Mr. Krenn went up to his suite.

There a much agitated Mr. Dato, who had been waiting in his employer's rooms, burst into the hotel, where Mr. Krenn went up to his suite.

Some of the newspaper guard, who had remained to watch the hotel suite, volunteered explanations. Correspondents seeking a private interview had hit on the expedient of sticking notes under his door, but watchful rivals promptly fished them out again.

Mr. Dato, waiting within, had been vainly trying to catch one of the elusive envelopes as it appeared and disappeared.

Mrs. McCormick has been free to marry again since Thursday, when one year had elapsed since her divorce from Harold McCormick, the Harvester magnate, who last summer married Ganna Walska, opera star, in Paris.

LEAGUE SLIPPING, BUT JACK DELAYS HIS HOME COMING

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
conveyed by his secretary yesterday, failed to dampen the hopes of either Stovall or Holloway. Today Stovall's friends claimed to have kidnapped two of Gibbons' supporters, while Holloway insisted that he had 19 votes sewed up in a rock. There was distinct improvement in the mortal situation, however, following the report of the Muskogee institution, the commission quotes the report of the veterans' bureau investigation as follows:

"A hospital that for beauty of location, modern features and designs, absolute honesty of construction, and a minimum rental cost to the federal government, has no peer within the continental limits of the United States."

The report is signed by the three commissioners—Harold B. Fell of Ardmore; S. Grant Victor of Afton and Horace H. Hagan of Tulsa.

Several hundred candidates for various positions of employment in the legislature are tramping over each other in the hotel lobbies, while the question of who shall his page assumes primary importance in practically every discussion among members. On this score, there is a growing disposition to bring in boys from the country districts and spoil them.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

1922 SET RECORD AS TOWN BUILDER FOR 'MAGIC CITY'

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
year to come several of the larger enterprises are already increasing their investments in Tulsa, and are expected to continue this improvement program indefinitely to keep pace with the demands of their customers.

Businessmen here do not hear old question "what will Tulsa do when the oil days play out?" Outdoors as well as indoors have discovered that Tulsa is and always will be the oil center of the world, and that all will "play out" many years after all of them have ceased to worry some earthly affairs. Oil leases that were first early in the history of the Midcontinent field, and which continue to produce prodigious amounts of oil, are being drilled to deeper sands that produce more oil than the sands to which the original wells were drilled.

In the meantime, Tulsa is obtaining numerous factories both large and small, that give employment to many men and women and many more. Tulsa is and always will be the oil center of the world, and that all will "play out" many years after all of them have ceased to worry some earthly affairs.

By the time there is no more oil, Tulsa may be the leading manufacturing city of the west.

C. B. Peters, enthusiastic Tulsa booster, said that the phenomenal growth, but I am confident the coming years will see its greatest development. Charles H. Peters, president of the Chamber of Commerce, predicted yesterday: "Here we have a magnificent city, built with a solid foundation. It has passed the speculative stage—its bright future is a certainty."

"Northeastern Oklahoma has more undeveloped mineral resources than any district of similar size in the world. We have barely scratched the surface. We know what is stored away in mother earth, awaiting only the magic touch of man to bring it to the surface and prepare it for man's use."

The whole of northeastern Oklahoma—all within Tulsa's trade territory—has witnessed a pronounced increase in population in recent years and more especially in 1921 and 1922.

Tulsa has the goods; it has the men, and it has an unconquerable spirit. It will overcome any obstacle.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

Several large buildings are to be started immediately after the first of the year. One of the largest will be the new Crocker building, home of the Central National bank, at Second and Boston. Another big project to be completed is the Edinburg building, purchased recently by W. M. Smith and O. K. Eysenbach.

strive to bring the whole problem of reparations to a final head and is unable of being put into action immediately.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The United States will make no definite move in the European situation until it can be seen whether the allied powers in their meeting at Paris next week can adjust the differences which have kept Europe in economic ferment for three years.

If the premiers again fail to agree upon German reparations and other controversial problems and if France persists in her announced intention of occupying the Ruhr basin on January 12, then it is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

It is entirely probable the American government will intervene with a "plan" to adjust the differences and defend peace.

tion may be defeated in the coming legislature and

"Whereas, it is their purpose to re-elect one W. C. McAlister, secretary of the senate and ex-officio secretary of the state election board in order to insure safe the defeat of the farmers' program both in the legislature and before the people through this referendum and

"Get Behind Walton"

"Whereas, there were at least five state officials whose nominations were stolen in the primary by the short-potting of ballots, switching of figures as in the case of Pittsburg county where 400 votes were deliberately stolen from the Honorable J. C. Walton and shifted to some one of their machine who was running behind and every other crooked device known to a band of expert election slicers and

"Whereas, all decent and upright citizens regardless of station in life should get behind the Honorable J. C. Walton, governor-elect, his policies and program and hold up his hands to this the greatest crisis in the history of Oklahoma:

Therefore, be it resolved that we the delegates to the Lincoln county convention of the Farmers' Educational Co-operative union of Oklahoma go on record against slash funds of corruptness, election thieves and thieves and ask our senator, the Honorable Courtland Pennington to vote against these election thieves and support the government in every way possible to the end that his administration may be beneficial and successful and resolved further that we ask our representatives to support the Honorable Murray Gibson for speaker of the house and resolved further that we ask the press of the state to give this resolution the widest publicity.

While the fight to dislodge Lieutenant Governor Trapp from his grip on the election machinery has not been given so much prominence it has flavored the entire controversy over organization of the senate. The matter of whether Senator Holloway or Senator Anklin is to be the president pro tem of the senate is of rather small consequence after all is said for the reason that one Ed Trapp will be on the job as president of the senate every day of the session.

The pro tem may preside when nothing is passing but perforce but Trapp will be Willie at the rat hole when bills are being passed, therefore the fight of the senate is of more than a cloak for the real issue which is over control of the election machine.

His Secret Committee.

It has not been generally known but at the time the committee of 21 was asked to draft farmer-labor legislation a committee of three was asked by Walton to draft a new election law. This committee is composed of Porter Newman of Durant, recently elected judge of his district, J. S. Estes and Earl Witt of Oklahoma City. It has been at work on the draft of an election law which is said to be "fair" and which will be handed to Mayor Walton upon his return to the capital. Judge Newman is in the city and will remain until after session convenes.

It has been doubted that the senate will consent to throwing McAlister over as a concession to the new administration and there is a general belief that Trapp has succeeded in organizing the senate favorably to the secretary's retention.

If this proves to be true then the fight is to be transferred to the open and unless the proposed election law can be passed by the legislature

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

'FLU' MEN LAUNCH
M'ALISTER FIGHT

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
to throw their whole-hearted support, both moral and financial, behind the enemies of the honorable J. C. Walton, governor-elect, to the open and unless the proposed election law can be passed by the legis-

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

It is not believed in Washington, at any rate, that the French government could long withstand the combined moral and diplomatic pressure that could be exerted against it to come into line.

lature which would involve a back-up on the part of the senate it will be initiated and referred to the people for a vote.

ANOTHER BRIBERY CHARGED WRIGHT

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.
fourth interest in the claim for $2,000. Judge Wright, Ill. charged accepted the proposal and told Ill. he would decide the case in his favor.

On the strength of this testimony Judge Wright was disqualified by the supreme court from further action in the case.

A Severe Complaint.

The state bar commission's complaint against Ill. is one of the most severe ever embodied in proceedings of like nature in the state, attorneys say.

One count in the petition says: "That the action was bribery and that Ill. openly swore that he was guilty of the act heinous crime and advertised to the world that he, an attorney at law, was a briber and a corrupter of courts; that he was a traitor to the purpose for which courts exist; that he was guilty of one of the basest and most atrocious crimes which an attorney may commit; that the said admissions on the part of defendant show him to be a depraved character wholly untrustworthy; that said actions, so admitted, reflect upon the court of which he was an officer and upon the bar of which he was a member; that by reason of said unprofessional conduct he has brought the legal profession of Oklahoma into disrepute."

At one time Elkins was evidence man for a well-known criminal lawyer in Oklahoma City. He told the Ferguson that he had been admitted to the bar in Louisiana but had never been given a license to practice in Oklahoma.

Funeral for C. A. Sen.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 30.—Funeral services for C. A. Sen, president of the Oklahoma Railway company and a leader in the development of Oklahoma, will be held Monday. A mass funeral will be held Monday. A mass funeral will be held Monday. A mass funeral will be held Monday.

Funeral for C. A. Sen.